

Jewish Kids Hub

Welcome to the JKH meeting

We're so glad to have you on the team! Made for Chabad kids and families. A quick look at how we're doing, then what we need to decide and who will do it.

How We're Doing

7,674 YouTube views since Sep 2024	KKA Our biggest series	25 Google clicks to the site (3 months)	3 Magazine issues out
--	----------------------------------	---	---------------------------------

- YouTube: Kids Kan aKomplish brings almost all our views. Our best is Ep. 8 Part 1 (about 1,400). Nach Heroes and the newer videos are much smaller, and we had no new subscribers this month.
- Website: very few people find us on Google, almost all in Australia. Our YouTube channel still links to the old Wix site.
- Magazine: out for Pesach, Shavuot and Tishrei.
- Spotify: very small so far.

Big picture: kids who find us like what we make. The problem is that not enough people know we exist, there is little reason to come back to the website, and a few people are doing a lot of the work.

What We Need to Talk About

1. Website: how do we get more people?

WHERE WE ARE

- Google showed our site 233 times in 3 months but only 25 people clicked, almost all in Australia.
- People do search for things like "jewish kids", but we show up far down the page.
- Our YouTube channel still links to the old Wix website, not jewishkidshub.com, so everyone who clicks goes to the wrong place.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Change the website link on YouTube to jewishkidshub.com (first thing, takes 2 minutes).
- Put the link in every video description, at the end of every video, in every magazine, and in every email.
- Write a clear title and description for each page so Google shows what we are.
- Share the link in Chabad schools, Chabad houses, shuls and parent WhatsApp groups, and ask shluchim to pass it on.
- Ask Chabad schools, Chabad houses and shluchim running kids' programs to use our videos in class and at their events.
- Each series gets its own easy page (KKA, Nach Heroes, Halachos, Moshiach).
- Collect parent emails with a sign-up box and send one email when something new comes out.
- Post something new on the site on the same day each week so there's a reason to return.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Change the website link on YouTube to jewishkidshub.com
- Add the website link to the description of every video
- Write a clear title and description for each page on the site
- Add a sign-up box for parent emails, and send an email when something new comes out
- Share the link in Chabad school, Chabad house, shul and parent groups with every new release

☐ Decide: who fixes the YouTube link this week, and who owns the website day to day.

2. Website: how do we make it more interactive?

WHERE WE ARE

- Right now the site is mainly somewhere to watch videos.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- A short quiz or question after every KKA episode (no right or wrong shown, just fun).
- A weekly challenge or mitzvah tracker kids can tick off.
- Points or badges for watching episodes and answering questions.
- Monthly raffle with a prize, drawn at the end of the month.
- Kids vote on the next KKA topic or the next Nach Heroes hero.
- Printable activity sheets and colouring pages for each episode or Yom Tov.
- Games section (we already have games in the team): put them on the site.
- Exclusive videos and bloopers only on the website, so there's a reason to visit.
- Kids send in drawings, questions and ideas, and we show the best ones.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Build a short quiz for each KKA episode
- Write the quiz questions (no right or wrong shown)
- Set up points or badges for watching and answering
- Run the monthly raffle and pick the winner
- Make printable activity sheets and colouring pages and put them on the site

☐ Decide: pick the two ideas to build first, and set a date.

3. YouTube: getting more kids watching

WHERE WE ARE

- The channel started Sep 29, 2024 and has 7,674 views in total.
- Almost all views come from Kids Kan aKomplish, mostly older episodes. Newer videos and Nach Heroes get far fewer.
- We gained no new subscribers in the last 28 days.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Ask for a subscribe and a share at the end of every video.
- Post a short trailer a few days before each episode (trailers do well).
- Pick one release day each week so kids know when to expect something.
- Better thumbnails and titles that kids want to click.
- Share every new video in Chabad school, Chabad house, shul and shluchim groups the same day.
- Our actors share it with their own friends and classes.
- Playlists for each series so one video leads to the next.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Upload each video on release day with a good title and description
- Make a thumbnail kids will click
- Post a short trailer a few days before each episode
- Share the video in Chabad school, Chabad house and shul groups the same day
- Remind the actors to share with their friends
- Set up a playlist for each series

☐ Decide: release day, and who posts and shares each video.

4. Kids Kan aKomplish (KKA)

WHERE WE ARE

- Our most popular series, 11 videos so far.
- Episode 11 script is in early draft.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Episode length: 6–8 minutes, or a double episode?
- Add a trailer, bloopers or an extras page for each episode.
- Plan the filming dates and the deadline for Episode 11 and stick to them.
- Make it more of a series, with a story that continues between episodes.
- Link each episode to a quiz or activity on the website.
- Choose topics around the coming Yom Tov and the Chabad calendar (Chassidic dates and the Rebbe's teachings) so it's timely.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Finish the Episode 11 script by the deadline
- Choose and ask the actors
- Set the filming dates and book the places
- Film the episode
- Edit it and upload it
- Make the trailer and any bloopers

☐ Decide: Episode 11 script deadline and filming date.

5. Halachos for kids and Halachos Daily (HD)

WHERE WE ARE

- New series “Halachos Daily”: studio style, the host welcomes everyone, a quick “Loading HD...” joke, then “today’s halacha is...”.
- Easy everyday halachos that are simple to act out, for Chabad kids. The first sample script is Modeh Ani.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- How often do we release: daily, a few times a week, or weekly?
- Who hosts, and who acts in the skits and interviews?
- Write 5 scripts before we start filming so we never run out.
- Each halacha gets a short paragraph and its source on the website.
- Add a quiz so kids can test what they learned.
- Do we also do Kidtzur or Hilchos Shabbos?
- A Halachos page on the website that’s easy to browse by topic.
- Include Chabad minhagim and sources (like Shulchan Aruch Harav) where it fits.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Write the first 5 HD scripts
- Choose the host and the actors for the skits and interviews
- Find the paragraph and source for each halacha
- Film and edit each episode
- Put each halacha and its source on the website
- Add a quiz question for each one

☐ Decide: first 5 halachos, who hosts, and a start date.

6. Nach Heroes

WHERE WE ARE

- Yehoshua Part 1 is out. Next is the spies at Jericho, 5–10 minutes, animated and narrated.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Nach Heroes 2.0: short bio for each hero.
- Fun facts and “Did you know?” boxes.
- Interactive questions and challenges on the website.
- Hero highlights: middos, leadership moments, emunah.
- Kid-friendly design and layout.
- Trailer to build excitement before each new video.
- One new video every month so people expect it.
- A Chassidic thought or a story from the Rebbe’s teachings for each hero?

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Write the narration for the Jericho video
- Make or find the animation
- Record the narration
- Edit and upload the video
- Make a short bio and a “Did you know?” box for each hero
- Make a trailer before each new video

☐ Decide: who makes the next video and when it comes out.

7. Moshiach Is in Our Hands

WHERE WE ARE

- The podcast has had no views in the last 28 days.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Do we continue it, relaunch it, or pause it for now?
- If we continue: new episodes, a trailer, and a spot on the website and in the magazine.
- Share it in places where parents and kids listen (car rides, Shabbos, Yom Tov).

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Decide if we continue, relaunch or pause
- If we continue: record the next episode
- Make a new trailer
- Put it on the website and in the magazine

☐ Decide: continue, relaunch, or pause.

8. Magazine

WHERE WE ARE

- Three Yom Tov issues so far: Pesach, Shavuot and Tishrei.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Keep the length the same or change it?
- Which sections do kids like most: Halachos, KKA, games, stories, contests?
- Add QR codes that link to the website, videos and quizzes.
- Email a digital copy so more families get it, not only the printed copies.
- Kids' pages: puzzles, drawings and stories sent in by kids.
- Plan the next issue (Chanukah): sections, who does what, deadline.
- Make sure each issue shows the website link on every page.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Collect content from each section (Halachos, KKA, games, stories, contests)
- Design the pages and layout
- Add QR codes and the website link on every page
- Print and hand out the copies
- Email a digital copy to families
- Keep to the deadline for the Chanukah issue

☐ Decide: sections and deadline for the Chanukah issue.

9. Our team: who does what, and how we get more people

WHERE WE ARE

- Everyone has a role, but some people have a lot of departments and some departments have only one person.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Every department gets one leader and one helper, so nothing stops when someone is busy.
- Write what each job involves in two lines (actor, filming, editing, script writer, website, designer).
- Recruit more kids: friends, classmates, school and shul. Offer a trial for one video.
- More actors and a bigger filming crew so we can make videos faster.

- Ask a parent or teacher to help guide the younger members.
- Thank the team publicly (credits at the end of videos, names in the magazine).
- Short training for new people, led by a team member who already knows how.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Write a two-line job description for each role
- Invite friends and classmates for a trial on one video
- Find a parent or teacher to guide the younger members
- Teach new people how things work
- Add names of the team to the credits and the magazine

- ☐ Decide: which departments need more people, and who finds them.

10. Money and support

WHERE WE ARE

- We want to grow and do more, which needs support.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Sponsors: a one-page “Sponsor JKH” page showing what sponsors get (thank-you in videos and the magazine, a mention on the site).
- Sponsor an episode, a magazine issue, or a prize for the raffle.
- Local businesses, Chabad community families and shluchim as supporters.
- Ask the shul, the Chabad house, shluchim and Chabad community organisations for help.
- Look for Jewish education grants and who could apply.
- Members-only content on the website for supporters (the site already supports this).
- Magazine subscriptions for families who want every issue.
- Check what YouTube needs before we can earn from the channel, and how far we are.
- Events that bring in support (see below).

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Make a one-page “Sponsor JKH” page (what sponsors get)
- List families, businesses and organisations we could ask
- Ask the first three
- Write thank-yous for sponsors in videos and the magazine
- Look into grants for Jewish education
- Check what YouTube needs before we can earn from the channel

- ☐ Decide: who makes the sponsor page and who asks the first three supporters.

11. Events

WHERE WE ARE

- Mendel and Eli run events.

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Use events to bring new families to the website and YouTube (QR code at every event).
- A premiere night for the next KKA episode.
- A kids' event around a Chassidic yomtov (like Yud Tes Kislev or Chanukah), with the Chabad house.
- Magazine launch for each Yom Tov, with a quiz or prize.
- Take photos and short videos at events for the site and magazine.

Who: _____

WHAT THEY NEED TO DO

- Choose one event and the date
- Make a QR code for the website and YouTube
- Invite families and tell the Chabad school, Chabad house and shul
- Take photos and short videos at the event
- Put the best ones on the site and in the magazine

☐ Decide: one event to plan before the next Yom Tov.

Notes

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper designed for writing. It features a series of evenly spaced horizontal blue lines across its entire width. A single vertical red line runs down the left side of the page, creating a narrow margin. The paper is otherwise completely empty, with no text or other markings.
